KFMI CO-ORDINATOR KENYA REVIEW

*My name is
Mrs. Phoebe Towongo, the Coordinator for
Kingdom Financiers
Ministry International

*On behalf of KFMI Partners in Kenya,
I would like to share a summary of the Partners experience for the year 2021.*

This year has been spiritually and aptly dubbed “The Year of Miracles” by our Prophet Major 1 with Habbakuk 3:2 being the guiding verse written in the armbands that wrapped the arms of all Kenya ECG Partners who shouted in jubilation at the sound of the midnight pomp and glamour.

2021 was finally here and it came with huge expectations, great promises and we were not to be left out. We would meet together for the Partners overflow meetings every month which gave us a chance to connect with one another as we are based in various parts of the country. The joint prayers, ministration and the grace to partner with our prophet Major 1 has really been rewarding. We would reaffirm our commitment to financially out-give ourselves and ensure we rally together as a team with a common goal. This I am proud to ensure it remains an ongoing tradition.

This year we received the astounding revelation that we are “The Jesus Nation”. Our Prophet Shepherd Bushiri’s global and critically acclaimed best selling book: “The Jesus Nation” was released and what a time we had when we delved in reading for ourselves and also had the pleasure to review the book as KFMI Kenya Partners. We did a detailed review of chapter 4 titled “Developing the right mindset” and since then, the change has been palpable.

That particular review was aired on Prophetic Channel together with other chapter reviews from Partners all over the world. We have since been having weekly online prayers as Partners while we study the book (as our guiding template) to remind ourselves that we have to take over the Mountain of finance for Jesus.

If you have not yet read this book, don’t let the New Year turn in without collecting Prophet’s special grace therein. Get a copy. Quick.

KFMI CO-ORDINATOR REVIEWS

Another highlight of the year was the KFMI KENYA charity outreach, where we all came together as Partners in fulfillment of the Prophet's mandate of giving and caring for our communities.

Glamorously decked with the Kingdom Financiers hoodies and caps we laughed, danced and gave freely as Jesus gave of Himself to us. On this auspicious occasion, something special was in the air. It was our Mum Prophetess Mary Bushiri's birthday and we cut cake, ate and celebrated her special day with the precious angels at Children's Garden Home and School located in Uthiru, Nairobi. We later prayed together with the children. The pictorial and video of this event is a cherished memory.

As KFMI Kenya Partners we believe in being proactive and prayerful. We use the grace of our father Major 1 to beckon our families, friends, work colleagues, fellow ECG members to come onboard as Partners. To this end, we held a Testimony Panelist Day and this video was shown on Prophetic Channel and we created noise around our Kenyan community for them to watch the clip with the hope that they can join as Partners and see what God of MAJOR 1 can do for them too.

The penultimate event for the year for Kenyan Partners was the October retreat where we travelled to Malawi to meet our Prophet, Major 1. This experience is detailed in the KFMI November 2021 magazine edition. No words can describe the way Major 1 hosts his Partners. We were prayed for, ate the best and most sumptuous meals made special for kings; we took photos and gave our Prophet unique Kenyan gifts.

Finally, we thank God of Major 1, our beloved spiritual parents for their prayers and exhortation to us through the year. It is our hope and expectation that in 2022 we shall break all limits.

ARTIST FEATURE

”Swazi

*A Prophet in Arts,
Entertainment &
Media in the Jesus Nation.*

Born in 1979 in the Durban township of KwaMashu, Swazi grew up surrounded by music, in particular, gospel music. Raised by parents who were musicians themselves, there was no way that Swazi would escape her music destiny.

Born in 1979 in the Durban township of KwaMashu, Swazi grew up surrounded by music, in particular, gospel music. Raised by parents who were musicians themselves, there was no way that Swazi would escape her music destiny.

Leaving home headed for the city of gold at the tender age of 18 after being accepted by then emerging group and now no1 gospel Choir in South Africa, Joyous Celebration, Swazi has been on her path of destiny since that audition in for the ensemble in 1998.

Fast forward to 2003 when Swazi released her Debut album "My First Love" which was unexpectedly South African Contemporary Jazz. This undoubtedly caused an upset with her clout of gospel fans gained through Joyous Celebration. However the singer, explains that she in fact draws from both gospel and jazz sounds owing to her late father Emmanuel Dlamini who would play both these genres in the house. As such Swazi grew up hearing the likes of George Benson, Al Jerraux Letta Mbulu, Busi Mhlongo alongside The Clark Sisters, Yolanda Adams, Kirk Franklin and a host of American gospel choirs. This distinctly influenced her sound of music and delivery of her performances.

In 2006 she released her sophomore album Dance with me, followed by "Gospel Meets Jazz" live CD and DVD in 2010 of which the CD was awarded Best Jazz for Crown Gospel Music Awards. 2012 Swazi Dlamini released the first part of her Full Circle Series with the "Soul of me" album which saw her collaborating with songwriters like Kabomo Vilakazi and Njabulo Seh Nene, which was squealed in 2013 when she released "The Gospel Truth" CD both these albums were part of her celebrating 10 years as a solo artist by released both styles of music 6 months apart to thank both sides of her fans for her music Journey.

Swazi's musical turnaround came in 2016 when she joined Major1 Recordz, for the first time in her career of music Swazi went Gold with her Worship Enlightened album which sold in excess of 15 000 units by 2017. She says "this is a milestone for me, because even with the awards ad popularity of my Music, I had never enjoyed notable CD sales until Worship Enlightened and Major1 Recordz"

And the Gospel Minister just keeps winning, in 2017 she released the "Alabaster" a Crown award winning and SAMA nominated offering that features the likes of Judith Sephuma, Onesimus Muzik, Victor Masondo, what she calls 'My best offering yet' The DVD was shot on 3 different stages in 1 night and the open air settings give you a feeling of worship under open heavens. A Major 1 Recordz first ever 3 stage in 1 night production, not only That but

The support from the Prophet has not only changed the multi award winning Songstress's life spiritually but musically as well. Now affectionally known as The Lioness Cub, TheeSwazi's songs echo globally on all ECG platforms as well as mainstream media worldwide. The song "you'll make a way, has become a global anthem, having reached top charts on various radio stations, the music video is strikingly different from your gospel music videos and this is how TheeSwazi explains it.

'The song You'll Make a way, what a personal song for me. Where do I start, this song, the music video for it, I decided to do an ode for the Prophets, to tell their story through this short film, because I saw God Making a way out of no way for Mum and Dad, and I wanted us as sons and daughter's never ever to forget how Ged delivered them out of the hands of the evil system that was persecuting them... if you watch the video on Prophetic channel or on my you tube channel you can tell that the whole story is summarised on this video.

Swazi is balancing her music career with a clothing business through her apparel inspired by her songs with Alabaster, Ephphata, I know who I am range. She also designs a line of clothing that women can feel elegant and classy in when they go to church. Her clothes can be purchased through her social media platforms. Her winter zipper tracksuits are always a hit, she has brought them back for 3 consecutive winters due to public demand. Swazi is a firm believer of multiple streams of income and her music allows her to expand her brand beyond the stage.

The most exciting chapter of the worshippers career is just unfolding, she has written a book, the alabaster my testimony and is likewise working on a signature fragrance called the Alabaster. This will then close the chapter of her Alabaster series. Swazi is currently working on the Victory album Live Recording which had to be postponed due to Covid regulation in her country. This concert has now been confirmed for 26th March in 2022.

In her plans, she wants to finally document songs she's written since 2017, its been 5 years since she last gave us a full album. A balanced life, when she is not singing she is a leader at Fourways Homecell with her husband Pastor Tshepo, she is often invited to minister in ECG as a Daughter of Major 1 both in Word and Music. This doting mom of 3 is fun loving and fully devoted to her kids who understand her work load and church commitments

2022, is the year of TheeSwazi as a Prophet in arts, entertainment and media in the Jesus Nation. Follow her on Facebook Page Swazi, Instagram Theeswazi and Twitter Swazi Dlamini
